Overview

The West Bloomfield Twp. Public Library offers thousands of eBooks in ePub and PDF formats at the eLibrary which is part of the Metronet Online Lending Library. These titles can be downloaded onto a home computer and transferred to a compatible eReader using free Adobe Digital Editions software.

Note: There are different help guides for Kindles and Kindle app devices and for using smartphones and tablets using the OverDrive app.

What are eBooks?

eBooks are electronic, or scanned, versions of books which can be read on a computer, eReader, smartphone or tablet devices such as an iPad.

The West Bloomfield Twp. Public Library purchases eBooks from OverDrive; these titles are available through the eLibrary page off the West Bloomfield Library website (<http://www.westbloomfieldlibrary.org/RESEARCH.php>)

Collection Basics:

- Thousands of eBooks are available in a variety of genres
- eBooks in the Adobe ePub or PDF formats work with compatible eReaders
- Individuals can have 10 OverDrive titles checked out at any one time
- eBooks circulate for 21 days, and can be returned early using Adobe Digital Editions
- Titles that are currently checked out, can be placed on hold
- There are two types of OverDrive eBooks; regular OverDrive eBooks which are part of a shared collection with other local libraries, and OverDrive Advantage titles which are exclusively for West Bloomfield library card holders
- The library also offers NetLibrary and Gale Virtual Reference eBooks which are viewable only from the Internet. These items do not check out and cannot be transferred to an eReader

Steps for downloading and transferring an eBook to an eReader

1. To search for eBooks, go to the eLibrary on the library's website. Click on the "Search eBooks" link.
2. eBook titles can be searched for by keyword, title, or author in the search box. Searches can be refined by utilizing the "format" dropdown and selecting the eBook format type, then changing the time period from "this month" to a desired time frame. The "all months" option will give a user the most results. The last dropdown menu will specify collection type and defaults to "entire," but can be changed to narrow searches to adult or youth. Click on the search box.
3. Results can be sorted by title, author or date added to site.
4. Click on an eBook title you are interested in and it will show you the availability of the title.
5. eBooks will either be a part of the Advantage collection or the regular collection.

For Advantage titles, click on the  to check availability. Log-in by selecting West Bloomfield and entering your name and barcode number. Click "Add to my eCart" if the title is available.

For regular Overdrive titles, if available, click "Add to my eCart," and select, "Proceed to checkout." Log-in by selecting West Bloomfield and entering your name and barcode.

6. Click on "Confirm Check out" button if ready.
7. You must have the appropriate digital book software downloaded to your computer before you download the eBook.
8. Click on the "download" button.
9. Download the title. When it prompts you to Open or Save the title, click Open. The title should download into Digital Editions on your computer and open.
10. Go to the Library View in Adobe Digital Editions, which is a button in the upper left hand corner of the software. This view will show all of the covers of the titles you have downloaded.
11. Now connect the eReader to your computer and it should appear in the lower left hand column of Digital Editions.
12. Click on the cover of the title you would like to transfer and drag it to your eReader in the left hand column. Drop the title into your eReader.
13. The title should now be transferred.
